

Carburetor Protection – by Dave Biegas

I use the foam ear plugs to block the carbs and mufflers of any dust in workshop or pollen in garage during the flying season. They are very cheap and some come on a string that you can easily store on your flight box when flying. For smaller engines I just cut them in half. They seem to work great for me.

